

News and stories

College Of The Ozarks Honors Fallen Military Members

April 20, 2017

KTTS

College of the Ozarks in Point Lookout, Missouri honored the lives of fallen military members and their families at an event called The Missouri Gold Star Families Memorial.

Governor Greitens spoke at the event - and so did Bass Pro founder Johnny Morris.

The event is paid by money raised at Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf Tournament at Big Cedar Lodge Golf Tournament, which going on now near Branson.

In a solemn ceremony at College of the Ozarks, the lives of the fallen military and their families were honored at the dedication of The Missouri Gold Star Families Memorial at Patriots Park on the College campus on April 19, 2017.

More than 2,000 were in attendance — Gold Star Family members; College of the Ozarks and School of the Ozarks students, faculty, and staff; and members of the community.

Missouri Governor Eric Greitens encouraged Gold Star Families to remember their heroes as humans – as sons, daughters, husbands, and wives.